

Symposium in Honour of the 100th Anniversary of the Göttingen Circle
In conjunction with the Canadian Philosophical Association
Concordia University
Montreal, Quebec, Canada
30 May, 2010

Guillaume Fréchette, Université du Québec à Montréal
“Phenomenology as Descriptive Psychology: The Munich Interpretation”

Darryl Murphy, Brock University
“The Platonic/Aristotelian Divide Over the Interactionism Problem in Göttingen”

Jeff Mitscherling, University of Guelph
“Husserlian Idealism and the Ingardenian Realism as Conflicting Interpretations of Aristotelian Metaphysics”

Kimberly-Baltzer Jaray, Wilfred Laurier University
“The Nature of Things According to Reinach”

Mark Roberts, Franciscan University of Steubenville
“An Ontology of Judgments, Propositions, and States of Affairs”

Rodney Parker, The University of Western Ontario
“The History Between Koyré and Husserl”

Donald Jack Beith, McGill University
“Husserl and Internal Time Consciousness”

Zachary Davis, St. John’s University
“Values of War and Peace: Max Scheler’s Political Transformation”